

AVAILABILITY NOTIFICATIONS

A STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE

If a campsite is unavailable for the dates you wish to book on parks.saskatchewan.ca, you can now sign up to receive a notification email when it becomes available. Availability notifications are sent to all customers signed up for a specific site's availability notification once a day and is booked on a first-come, first-served basis.

For example, you can create an availability notification on an unavailable campsite and five other people can do the same as well. If and when the site becomes available, you and the five other people will receive an email notification at the same time. The site can then be booked by the first person to reserve the site.

Availability notifications can be added to the following site types:

- Nightly campsites including Accessible, Double Site, Full Service, Electric, Economy, Equestrian, and Non-Electric site types;
- Camp-Easy Yurt and Mongolian Yurt sites;
- Group campsites;
- Seasonal campsites;
- Pavilion;
- Picnic Shelters; and
- Swimming Lessons.

In this guide:

- Create an Availability Notification
- Remove an Availability Notification
- View an Availability Notification

The screenshot shows the Saskatchewan Parks website interface. At the top left is the logo for Saskatchewan Parks. A navigation bar contains links: HOME, FIND CAMPING SPOT, CAMPING THIS WEEKEND, eGIFT CARDS, ENTRY & SHOP, DONATE, FEES, POLICIES, and MY RESERVATIONS & ACCOUNT. On the right, it says 'Welcome, Bob' and 'Sign Out'. The main content area is titled 'Create Availability Notification' and includes a 'Back to previous' link. Below the title, there is explanatory text: 'Don't miss out! What you were looking for isn't available now, but it might become available later (due to cancellations or other changes). Create this Notification (button below) and we'll check for matching availability every day. Notices will be sent to the email address you sign-in with. bob@hotmail.com'. A form displays the following details: Facility: Buffalo Pound Provincial Park, SK; Site: E1 in Elmview; Arrival: Fri, May 19, 2023; Length Of Stay: 2 Night(s). At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Create this notification' (highlighted with a red box) and 'Do not create this notification'. A note at the bottom states: '(Note: Availability Notifications are accurate as of the moment sent. Receiving a Notification does not grant exclusive access to the reported availability. Sites may be booked by you or others the moment those sites become available)'.

Step 6

After creating notification, you will be redirected to all Availability Notifications that you have created and will see a message stating that "Your notification has been created."

Step 7

If the site becomes available you will receive an email to the email address associated with your account.

Availability notifications are sent once a day approximately at 12:40 am CST when daylight savings time is in effect (1:40 am CST when not).

Sites are reserved on a first-come-first-serve basis.

To reserve the site, click on the URL link within the email you receive and/or locate the site on the reservation website, parks.saskatchewan.ca

Creating an Availability Notification for Seasonal Campsites

To add an availability notification on a seasonal site that is not currently available, complete the following steps:

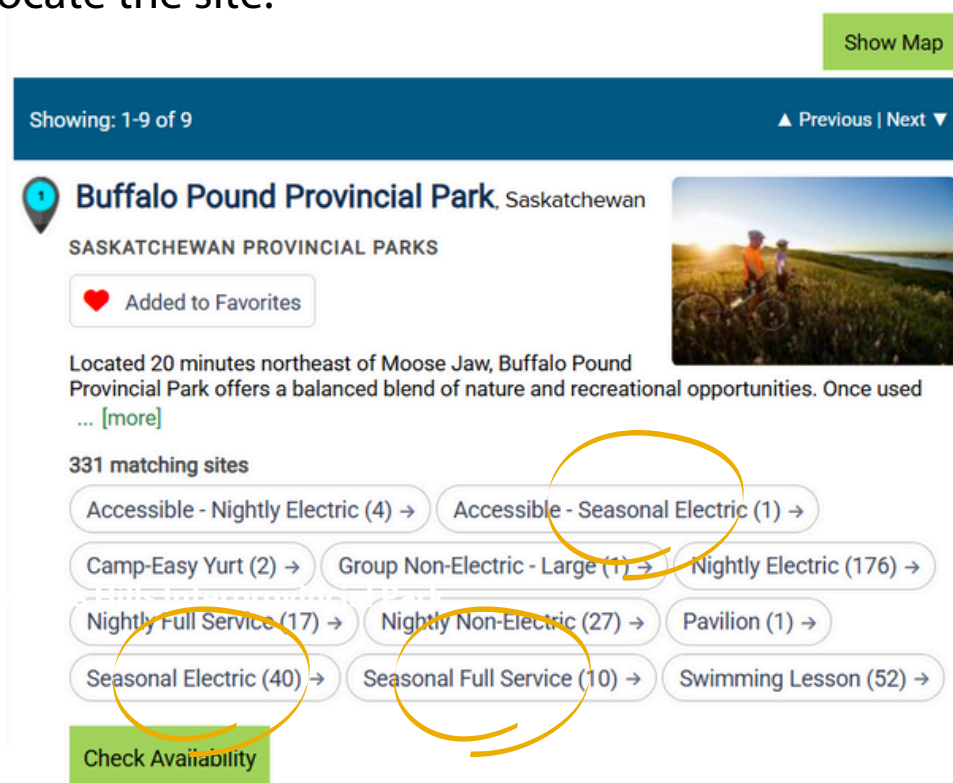

Step 1

Locate the site you are interested in by searching for the park from the HOME screen.

- Enter Park Name then click "Search".

- Click on the seasonal camping type you are interested in to locate the site.

Step 2

- Narrow search results by entering in site and/or campground information in the "Narrow Results" section found on the left side of your screen. The details entered in this area will be used to create the availability notification for a seasonal campsite.
- Click "Apply Filter"

QUICK TIP: To add an availability notification to more than one site at a time, enter in the site numbers and use a comma (,) between each number to separate the multiple sites.
